First Quarter Schedule Notes:

- Average taking around 16 units your first quarter at UC Davis, this roughly works out to be four 4 unit courses.
- There are many available courses to take in the East Asian Studies major, so make sure to check Schedule Builder for what courses are available for the quarter, and refer to the Major Guides to become familiar with the courses that will provide credit towards the major.
- All prerequisite courses need to be completed before enrolling in East Asian Studies major-related courses, check the UC Davis catalog to ensure you have completed any prerequisites required.
- The East Asian Studies major is interdisciplinary, so many students in the major also pursue a minor or double major, so you may be interested in looking into other studies to pursue along with East Asian Studies.

Placement Exams

Recommended

Foreign Language: All students pursuing an A.B. degree in the College of Letters and Science complete a Foreign Language through the 15-unit level, and all students pursuing the East Asian Studies major will need two quarters of the SAME East Asian beginning language. Please see the UC Davis Language Center website for details on course placement or proficiency exams if you have familiarity with a language other than English.

Not Required

Chemistry: The East Asian Studies major does not require the Chemistry Placement Exam. If you plan to take Chemistry courses, be sure to review placement requirements prior to enrollment.

Computer Science: The East Asian Studies major does not require Computer Science courses. If you plan to take Computer Science courses, be sure to review placement requirements prior to enrollment.

Math: The East Asian Studies major does not require the Math Placement exam. If you plan to take Math courses, be sure to review placement requirements prior to enrollment.

Recommended First Year Goals

- Make sure you have completed the lower division requirements if you have not done so already, including the Foreign Language requirement for the East Asian Studies major, two of the lower division HIS 9A, 9B, or 9C series courses, and one lower division elective.
- Confirm with major and college advisors about how your transfer coursework will apply to your major and/or degree requirements, including having an official IGETC sent to UC Davis if applicable.
- Explore a new area of interest – East Asian Studies is highly interdisciplinary!
- Read the East Asian Studies Weekly Announcements email for information on programs, internships, and course offerings.
Additional Information:

- East Asian Studies students can take a range of different courses from multiple majors to complete their major requirements, including Anthropology, Art History, Comparative Literature, Drama and Theatre Studies, History, Music, Political Science, Religious Studies, Sociology, and more!

- With a 61-62 unit requirement for the major, East Asian Studies students still have at least 119 units to complete for the College requirement, so there is a lot of opportunity to expand and explore other majors!
